| The Oil Factor   | An Amazonian super seed! O&3 presents Pequi Seed Oil, Cold Pressed. Our cold pressed Pequi seed oil is wild harvested & produced in the Brazilian Amazon. It is a super healthy oil, containing Vitamin A, Vitamin E & lots of antioxidants, all of which mean it is a highly functional ingredient for your next formulation. We like to use it on its own & apply it directly to both the skin & hair. Its essential fatty acid profile aids in the recovery of our skin & hair cells & acts a good strengthener of both, in particular it can be used as a natural alternative to reduce frizz in ones hair by strengthening the cuticles. You will find this oil absorbs wonderfully into both your hair & skin. We didn't even get onto the fact that it is produced by co-operatives in the Amazon. |
